GRATITUDE GENERATION

Gratitude.Generation

"We love having a space where our children can actually practice the values of gratitude, generosity, and helping others, rather than just hearing about them.

What has been especially meaningful to us is seeing those lessons extend beyond the volunteer space and into their everyday lives."

"Our kids will often play 'Gratitude Generation' at home, showing others how to make things for people who may need them or thinking of ways they can help others. It has become part of their imaginative play and the way they naturally think about caring for others."

"My family and I feel welcomed, accepted and appreciated. It's a place where I feel understood as a parent, and I know there will be someone there to help me work through the experience with my kids.

It's a place where I can teach my kids what it means to work hard and give to those who are in need. I always feel like we're doing the right thing, in an honest way. I'm so proud of the work we do with g2!"

"g2 has done a wonderful job of showing us that even the smallest hands can make a difference."
